The month of March, just passed, has been one of the mildest and most agreeable winter months of which we have remembrance. The weather was mild, there was plenty of sunlight, and better winter weather can not be asked. There was just cold enough to hold the sleighing during the early part. The bay and river below the dam were clear of ice before the month came to an end, and steam crafts were running in and out of the bay. The climate in this part of Michigan is improving, and the temperature is much more agreeable than in the past.

Last Saturday Captain Sinclair, keeper of the Thunder Bay Island light, left this port in a sail boat, on his return home. A severe gale, with strong squalls, was blowing at the time, and soon after he left the report was circulated that his boat was capsized out in the bay. The tug Arthur D. went out a long distance into the bay, but was unable to find any sign of the boat or its occupant. Last Sunday the same tug was sent to Thunder Bay Island to ascertain if there were any tidings of the keeper, when it was learned that he had arrived safe at the island.

and Mrs. Maiden were prominent members of Trinity parish. Their friends are numerous and comprise the leading citizens. The deceased has also taken a great interest in the management and welfare of Lockwood Post, G. A. R., and, aided by his estimable wife, has done much to make the Post a success. He leaves behind him a wife and two grown up sons, as well as a host of friends who regret his departure, and who will miss him sadly. He was a good citizen, a skillful physician, a kind husband and father, and a sincere friend.

Dr. Maiden was a member of the A. O. U. W., and of the K. O. T. M., and had in those two societies $4,000 life insurance. The rest of his insurance will raise the amount to $10,000.

The funeral took place last Sunday afternoon, and the procession was the largest ever formed in this city. It consisted of Lockwood Post G. A. R., four tents of K. O. T. M., the A. O. U. W., the Masonic fraternity, and a large number of citizens in carriages. The procession of the different societies was over half a mile in length.

The remains were escorted by the Masonic fraternity and other societies to Trinity church, where the services were held—Rev. John Munday officiating, and then to the cemetery, where the beautiful Masonic burial service was rendered. The G. A. R., K. O. T. M. and A. O. U. W. formed a square about the grave, in each of which were the Masonic bodies and relatives and friends of the deceased.

Music was furnished by the G. A. R. Drum Corps and the Germania Band.

The various physicians of the city marched in the procession, in a body by themselves.
